

DR. CRIPPEN TRIER A SEVERE CROSS-EXAMINATION BY CROWN

Maintains Quiet Demeanor and Offers Explanation for His Every Action Following Belle Elmore's Disappearance

AGENTS ALL LETTERS PUT IN BY THE PROSECUTION

Declares His Statement of Wife's Death Was a Lie to Cover Up Scandal of His Separation from Her

Canadian Associated Press. London, Oct. 21.—Justice Atkinson, on taking his seat this morning found a note from the firm of the Crippen jury, requesting that the jury be allowed to examine the microscope, the place of the marked skin which has so vital a bearing on the history of the remains. This will be done in the afternoon. The Chief Justice before counsel and physicians.

Dr. Crippen, in the dock, was cross-examined by Mr. Muir, for the crown, as follows:—

"On Feb. 1, you were left alone in the house with your wife?"

"Yes."

"Was she alive and well?"

"Yes."

"Do you know of any person who has seen her alive since?"

"I do not."

"Or who has had a letter from her since?"

"I do not."

"Or can prove she left the house?"

"I have told you all the facts."

Talks in Sublimed Tones.

Dr. Crippen, who again complained of suffering from a cold through the drafts, spoke in quiet, subdued, but measured tones.

He retired to his room and she to her bed, he said, between two and three in the morning. He prepared her breakfast in the morning as he usually did, she being a late riser. He got home at seven that evening and found his wife gone. He presumed she had carried out her trunk of garments to America. He had made no enquiries as to her leaving either from cabmen, tradesmen or steamship agents either then or since his arrest. "It did not occur to me," he explained to his lordship. He didn't know she had taken her box with her.

Needed the Money.

Answering Mr. Muir, he said that he made his wife no regular allowance, but gave her what she asked for up to four pounds a week. He said to his wife's means, Dr. Crippen said that during the quarrel he asked her if she wanted any money and she said she didn't. Dr. Crippen's explanation of his hurry to leave his wife's jewelry was that he had to pay cash for an advertising scheme.

"About two months ago you had that scheme in your mind?"

"Yes."

"And you needed money for it?"

"Yes."

He had told Inspector Dew in July that he had never pawned anything of his wife's.

"Had you forgotten it?"

"No, I did not consider it her property as I had never pawned it."

"You told Inspector Dew she had taken some jewelry with her?"

"She had some time and a watch which were hers before her marriage. I had given my wife 150 pounds to buy furs."

Always Had Money.

"Where do you suppose your wife got the money to pay for her voyage to America?" Mr. Muir asked. "She always had plenty of money. I did not give her any. She had inherited it from her mother, but so far she had not carried out the threats."

"The complaint your wife made on the night of the dinner party was most unreasonable?"

"I think it was."

"Do you think that was sufficient to cause your wife to leave?"

"I think it evidently had some bearing on a long time."

"Did she have any other cause for leaving?"

"No, other than I know of."

"When she left you set about to think how to cover up the scandal?"

"I thought of it."

"I thought of it in a great deal of trouble?"

"I had already been acknowledged."

Counsel handed Dr. Crippen a letter written on March 26 from Hill-Croft Crescent which said:—

"I have written on March 26 from Hill-Croft Crescent which said:—

THE ATHLETICS WIN THIRD OF THE SERIES

For the Third Time the Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Chicago Cubs for the National Championship of the World.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Philadelphia came out here today and routed it. The Athletics claimed their third successive victory of the world's championship series with the Cubs to the tune of 12 to 5, and if the big pennant is not snatched by the Quakers tomorrow, Connie Mack will be the most surprised and astounded gentleman on the baseball map.

Captain Chance was ordered from the field in the third for slapping a decision.

In the three games played so far the easterners have pounded every assortment of curve which the entire galaxy of Cub pitchers could offer. Only "King" Cole, the so-called pitcher of the year, remains to be seriously considered by Manager Chance, and he has been beat back because of his inexperience in a crucial game and a belief also that his assortment of shots is just what the Mack men like.

The combat today was a slaughter. The big hurlers lasted just two innings, during which he allowed one single and two doubles, passed two batters and saw three runs cross the home plate.

McGraw was the next twister. He pitched just one-third of an inning, but that was long enough. The visitors hammered out two singles, a home run and sent Davies to first rubbing his back where one of McGraw's inbounds hit him. With the assistance of a boost by Scheute four runs were scored under his beneficent reign.

The bright particular stars of the day were Combs, Barry and Murphy. Combs allowed only six hits, passed four men, and contributed a two-bagger and a single, which atoned three runs to the Philadelphia contention. Barry hit as if there were another automobile in sight, also he figured in double plays. He made three hits, each one a double, drove in two runs and himself reached the counting station thrice.

It remained for Murphy, however, to electrify the crowd. His first noteworthy exploit was to smash the ball over the heads of the field into the overboard crowd. The bleachers for four sacks, driving two runners ahead of him. All the time he did not know how far the ball had traveled, and stopped after covering the two bases allowed under the ground rules for hits into the overboard. Umpire O'Day waved to him to come, which he did with the team slapping him on the back. The hit was a big one, as it was the first in the expansion of Captain Chance from the grounds. Chance, joined by most of his men, surrounded O'Day in an endeavor to persuade him that the raise made all hits into the crowd at any distance doctored. The arbitrator could not see it, and when the Cub leader sought to prolong the argument, he ordered him from the field. Archer, ordinarily a catcher, replaced him at the initial station.

Murphy was the next sensation and his play earned him an ovation. He ran back after what Hoffman had marked for a double, jumped on the runner in the right field, gripped the ball by his fingernails, felt over backward into the crowd, and presently emerged with the trophy still safe. Meanwhile Scheute, thinking that there were two out, or that Murphy could not possibly have captured the drive, ran around the base. He spoke at the third base to find that he had been doubled out at first. Scheute faced Combs four times, and all but one was allowed to walk. He brought two runs across the plate and fielded his position without a flaw. Both of Scheute's hits were doubles. Tinker made three hits, one of which was a two-bagger. His fielding was not up to his snuff work, however, two errors being charged against him. He negotiated the only stolen base of the day.

ACCEPT RESIGNATION.

Trustees of Queen's University Regret That Dr. Doyle Is Leaving the Institution.

Kings-ton, Ont., Oct. 20.—The trustees of Queen's University last night accepted with regret the resignation of Prof. R. W. Doyle, as head of the department of mental philosophy. His services for eighteen years were highly appreciated. He goes to Stratford in May next, as principal of the Presbyterian Theological College. The trustees will have a special meeting on November 14th to consider changes in the constitution to sever the ties that hold the university to the Presbyterian church, and sent back to the trustees by the general assembly for further consideration.

THE CUBS STILL HAVE VERY REMOTE CHANCE

Chicago Must Win Next Three Games To Be Even—Athletics Look To Be The Better Team—Have Beaten Cubs Decisively in Two Out of The Three Games.

Three straight wins for the Philadelphia Athletics makes them look all over winners of the world's baseball championship. The Cubs have been badly trounced in two of the games, but yesterday's victory of the Athletics capped them all. The series, however, is not yet decided. Today's game in Chicago if it goes to Philadelphia will end the series. The Cubs still have a chance, but they have to win the next three to be on even footing with the American League champions.

THE RING.

STANLEY BEATS BOWKRIE.

London, Oct. 20.—The winter boxing season was ushered in last night when "Digger" Stanley of London, one of the best fighters in England, knocked out the ex-champion, Joe Bowkrie, in the eighth round of a scheduled twenty-round battle before the National Sporting Club. The fight was for the bantamweight championship of Great Britain and a purse of £2,500. The winner also receives one of the Lonsdale belts.

This was one of the first big fights of the season at the National Sporting Club and more will follow shortly, no less than three contests for the heavyweight championship of England having been arranged at three different establishments.

After Bombardier Wells' success with Sergeant Sushette, Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter, brought forth Private Voyles of the Irish Guards as the next opponent for Wells, and they will meet at King's Hall on Wednesday night next.

Dick Burge, a former heavyweight champion, not to be outdone by McIntosh, has matched himself against Fred Drummond for Monday night, October 24th, while at Yorkland, P. O. Curran and Johnny Smith will fight it out.

Tom Thomsen, who beat Tom Lancaster at the club last spring, has been matched with middleweight belt which is now held by Thomas. Box Langford and Tommy Burns are matched by McIntosh to fight in London within the next few months. But for any article has not been named by the promoter.

Very little is heard of Freddie Welsh just now, as nobody here wants to give him the money he demands. Welsh's stock has been so depreciated since his affair here with Packey McFarland.

SQUABBLE OVER TITLE.
Chicago, Oct. 20.—The death of Stanley Ketchel, the pugilist at Birmingham, Mo., Saturday has precipitated the midwinter championship situation into more of loss of a multiple. Four claimants to the title exist at present, and of these three have faced the former champion in the ring, while the fourth would have had the opportunity before long had not Ketchel died. This last is Eddie Egan, who has won the title of champion of the world twice.

Others are former champion Billy Papke of Worcester, Ill., now in Australia; Frank Knott of Pittsburgh, and Hugo Kelly of Chicago. Papke claims the distinction from the fact that he was one of the very few that ever beat Ketchel. Papke was at Los Angeles two years ago. This is the one decisive bout in the post-champion suffered in his career, although he was downed by count in his battle with Jack Johnson at Colma, Cal., a year ago. One of these claimants for the championship will probably go down when Klaus and McGovern meet in their bout at Milwaukee scheduled for Friday night last, but postponed on account of McGovern's injured hand.

STEALING BRAINS AND STEALING MONEY

Some people are honest in theory and dishonest in practice. They steal brains where they might not steal money.

"PROGRESSO" and "DUPLEX" Overcoats are the products of brains—of creative genius—of experience.

Yet there are those who are trying to steal the money value of these two "Progress Brand" Overcoats.

There are several imitations of both these Overcoats on the market—but, like all imitations, they lack the essential features that make the originals famous.

Do not countenance dishonesty—especially when it works to your disadvantage.

When you buy, get the genuine "PROGRESSO" or "DUPLEX" Overcoat, bearing this label.

COMMITTED ON THEFT CHARGE.

At the R. N. W. M. P. barracks this morning James, alias Palmer, alias Sergeant and Arthur James, were committed for trial on a charge of theft. Last Wednesday, James, who resides in the north end of the city, while in an intoxicated condition, is alleged to have entered a house which was formerly occupied by Dorothy Stewart and filled a suit case full of articles belonging to the said Dorothy Stewart. It is further alleged that she then proceeded to smash the furniture and after accomplishing this to her satisfaction she left the house.

Unfortunately for her, however, Dorothy Stewart arrived on the scene and a wordy altercation took place between the two women which resulted in the neighbors.

A mounted police officer was called and the women were separated. Yesterday her house was searched by the police and valuable articles belonging to Dorothy Stewart were found on the premises. It is alleged that the silverware was stolen by Arthur James, the husband of the arrested lady. Songs were rendered by Messrs. Docherty, Steinhilber, and Murdoch, who were all well received. Selections on the violin and piano were given by Messrs. Jones, Espin and Mason. Mr. Jones' manipulation of a one-stringed violin made a decided "hit." Between the program items Mr. Hob Morrison gave selections on the gramophone, and never at any time did the concert fall flat. Y.M.C.A. BAROMETER

$36,000—SIX DAYS

There have been no outstanding subscriptions to the Y.M.C.A. fund-raising campaign, and the other hand a remarkably small number of small amounts. During the first three days of the campaign the effort has not been to round-up the small sums, but the work has been confined to securing the moderate large amounts. For the remaining days of the campaign the workers will be turned loose on the young men and it is confidently expected that their generous and will very materially aid in swelling the total.

The latest single subscription to date is for $2,000. The next largest sum is for $1,000. There have been eight $500 subscriptions secured, one for $500, six at $250, twenty-nine at $100, one at $75, forty-three at $50, seven at $40, one at $30, twenty-four at $25, twenty-six at $20, one at $15, one at $12, twenty-seven at $10, one at $8, fourteen at $5, one at $4, three at $2, and two at $1.

The promoters of the campaign are quite as much interested in securing the small amounts as the large. They know that a small amount is as likely to represent the limit of a giver's ability as a large amount from a man with a correspondingly large income.

Not the least important object of the present campaign is to increase the general interest of the public in the work of the Y.M.C.A.

DR. DUNN CHOSEN AS THE INSPECTOR

School Board Will not However Require all His Time for Medical Examinations

The vexed question of the appointment of a medical inspector of schools was finally disposed of at the regular meeting of the school board last evening when from some half dozen applicants the name of Dr. J. Dunn, M.D., was selected for the post, and the duties of the office outlined in an amendment to the existing rules.

By a unanimous vote of the board it was decided that the newly appointed official should not be required to devote the whole of his time to the duties of his office, but that he shall "devote such time as may be necessary to maintain an effective inspection of all children according to the duties of the post."

It will be the duty of the medical inspector to keep a card record of the condition of each pupil on a form provided for the purpose. He will visit the schools each month for the inspection of new pupils, and will also exercise an oversight of the sanitary conditions of the school buildings. He will also submit a monthly report to the board giving the results of his work.

During the early part of the meeting and before the appointment was made, the board was informed by a delegation from the Central Alberta Medical Association, which for some time past has interested itself in the appointment. The delegation was composed of Drs. R. H. R. Smith, J. P. MacDonald and H. R. Smith. They stated that it was their desire to commend Dr. Dunn to the board as the most suitable person for the position.

Dr. Dunn was appointed by a unanimous vote of the board, and the association expressed its recommendation that a medical inspector be appointed who should give the whole of his time to the duties of his office, and who should be a member of the association.

1841. They stated that the work was being held up as a consequence of the delay in the payment of the contract. They would allow them an extension of time the duration of which the work was delayed by the delay in payment. However, that the strike, if continued, would bring them into a period during which it would be impossible to do this work.

In reply to enquiries from the board they stated that it would be possible for them to have a number of reports for the board, though not fully completed, before the expiration of the period of the extension.

The matter was referred to the building committee, and there is little doubt but that the request will be granted.

Payment of accounts totaling $19,874.50 was authorized. A communication was received from the Canadian Manufacturers' Association expressing the hope that the order for fittings for the school gowns would be given to Canadian, and not to American firms. The letter was a sort of lament over the absence of such fittings for the school gowns.

The tender for the construction of the new high school building was awarded to Messrs. Connell and Spencer.

CRIPPEN TELLS HIS LIFE STORY

For Some Time but Quarrelled and Parted

London, Oct. 20.—Giving his evidence in his own defence, Dr. Crispin denied that he had ever performed a post-mortem examination. He had, however, practised as a specialist on eyes, also on nose and throat. In the same quiet tone the prisoner told the story of his marriage with Belle Elmore.

After they returned from America, he found quite a change in her disposition. She was always finding fault with the quarters. The man, Dr. Crispin, had been taking her about during the summer, and she refused to live as man and wife, however, as she said that she would "get over" her nervousness.

Speaking of his connection with the woman, Dr. Crispin said that he had compounded remedies for that concern there. In the summer of 1894, he had used in his England as a nerve remedy.

Asked about his method of work, he answered that it was given in external and internal medicine. He had to become acquainted with the woman's life, and he had to become acquainted with the woman's life.

Myosin Largely Used. Myosin, Crispin said, was largely used in his treatment. He had used it in England as a nerve remedy.

WORLD NOT ASK INTERVIEW LATE Government of Portugal It Would Be Harder to Get Facts, Oct. 20.—The Temps publishes an interview with Senor Teixeira e Sousa, the former Premier of Portugal, who says that while the king and his cabinet were away from the residence, the government nevertheless the ministers would not ask for a foreign investigation because they were not unworried and hunting, and also because they were convinced that any power intervening in Portugal would decline to retire after it had accomplished its purpose. The supreme is of the opinion that restoration of the monarchy would be impossible and that any attempt to that end would be useless and dangerous and liable to plunge the nation into a destructive civil war.

G.T.P.—WHITE CASE INSUPREME COURT

Appeal From Supreme Court in Alberta Comes up for Hearing at Ottawa

Ottawa, Oct. 20.—In the Supreme Court today, the appeal in the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company v. White was heard. The respondent was employed by the contractors on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway near Fairbairn, Alberta, and had his leg broken accidentally by a grading machine.

His leg was set at the temporary hospital by Dr. Cullen, an unregistered surgeon in charge at Pelly, Alberta, and he was sent in a wagon sixty-five miles to Edmonton (two and one half day journey) when he received attention by Dr. Hishop, the railway company's medical officer, at the public hospital, and later on was discharged from that hospital with his leg shortened and crippled for life.

He sued the company and Dr. Hishop, charging the doctor with malpractice and claiming liability by the company for neglect by the doctor in not providing proper medical attendance and hospital equipment as required by Public Works (Health) Act of 1910 and Dominion regulations thereunder.

Notwithstanding the objections by the counsel for the company the cases of action were tried together. The jury exonerating Dr. Hishop, found the company negligent in failing to provide suitable hospital accommodation on the works and assessed damages at five thousand dollars.

The respondents' counsel entered an appeal on the verdict and objects to any order for new trial on the ground that no such order can be made in the absence of Dr. Hishop from the evidence. Judgment was reserved. (By K.C. for the appellants; E.W. K.C. for the respondent.)

WITH THE FARMERS

CITY MARKET IMPROVEMENT.
Upon a crowded day on the city market an observer will notice the farmers standing talking in groups. Upon investigation it is found that each group is vying to represent one of the settlements surrounding Edmonton. They come from all around North, south, east and west, from twenty to fifty miles. On Saturday, for example, one group standing near the corner represents a settlement east of Leduc. "Yes, we came all the way to Edmonton to market our potatoes," said one farmer.

Then a lady who had sold her butter and eggs on the market exclaimed: "This is the first time I have been out from the city market but I sold my produce for a good price and for cash. I am coming back."

The city market is an interesting place on a sunny day. But the dairy-lark and manure scattered over the square more resembles a farm yard than a city square. Just a stone's throw from the office of the Health Department, on a windy day the farmers who sell the dairy dairy butter or the dressed meats or poultry, have to keep it covered to keep off the dirt dust from the pavement or the manure from the square which a passing wind blows up. A passing shower lays the dust, but there is no shelter for the ladies from the farm, who pluckily have to stand and wait till a purchaser comes by.

A farmer of a philosophical turn explained why they went to a town to trade and in which kind of a town they preferred to go. "We want an acute demand in the city on a day when few loads are on the market. It much hay is pressed for export it will naturally help to stiffen the price. Timothy hay sells for $15.00 per ton; upland from $15.00 to $20.00 per ton; rough hay $18.00 to $25.00 per ton. Green feed and cut straw $10.00 to $15.00 per ton. Oats, 24 to 28c per bush. The approaching winter season is to be steady the price of potatoes and there is a slight upward trend. The western load potatoes sold for from 40 to 50c per bush, and in small lots for from 45 to 55c per bush, or 23.00 per cask.

Butter and eggs are scarce on the market where the weather makes it rather uncomfortable in the open air market which is not then so well patronized by the farmers' wives who have butter or eggs to sell. Butter was in demand at 23c per lb., and fresh eggs sold freely at 15c per doz.

WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKETS.
Winnipeg, Oct. 20.—The cables came lower and though there was some buying in the morning by export houses, there seemed to be little or no actual export business, the fact of the decline in cables and a slight advance in Winnipeg putting prices more very much out of line. There was a pretty fair demand for No. 1 and 2 northern and for the commercial grades of 4, 5 and 6, but locally no inquiry for No. 2 northern. The market was never active and at times dragged badly, but the close showed an advance of 3/4 to 1c for wheat. Oats were not so much asked for as yesterday and closed unchanged. Flax showed a general advancement of 2c on all months. The range:
